

Angels tell the good news of Jesus' birth to shepherds.

Luke 2:8-20

On the night Jesus was born, some shepherds were out in the fields near Bethlehem, taking care of their sheep. It was dark and quiet. Suddenly the shepherds saw an angel! The shepherds were terrified! The angel said, "Don't be afraid. I have good news for you and for everyone else. The Savior has been born in Bethlehem. You will find the baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

As soon as the angel finished talking, the sky was full of angels. They were all praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth."

Then, suddenly, the angels were gone. The shepherds looked at each other. They said, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this baby!" They ran to Bethlehem and found baby Jesus lying in a manger. The shepherds were so happy that they told everyone they saw about Jesus. They praised God for sending Jesus!
